

E-Business and Consent Agreement

Castle Mortgage Corporation (CMC) encourages its Correspondent customers to consider the environment and to take advantage of technology that enables us to provide and them to receive important documents related to their loan electronically.

To the Correspondent

- Your consent to engage in business with CMC electronically will apply to all loan documents, disclosures and forms ("Loan Documents") and access to status screens for your loan pipeline.

System Requirements

- In order to conduct business with us electronically, you must have a computer with Internet access and an Internet email account and address; an Internet browser using 128-bit encryption or higher, Adobe Acrobat 7.0 or higher, SSL encryption and access to a printer or the ability to download information in order to keep copies for your records.
- If the software or hardware requirements change in the future, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to notify you before such requirements change. If you choose to withdraw your consent upon notification of the change, you will be able to do so without penalty.

Electronic Communication

- You must promptly notify us if there is a change in your email address or in other information needed to contact you electronically. You can contact us via email at: tpoadmin@castlemortgage.com or 10251 Vista Sorrento Pkwy, Suite 225, San Diego, CA 92121
- We will not assume liability for non-receipt of notification of the availability of electronic communications in the event your email address on file is invalid; your email or Internet service provider filters the notification as "spam" or "junk mail"; there is a malfunction in your computer, browser, Internet service and/or software; or for other reasons beyond our control.

I consent to do business electronically and I have provided a list of email addresses in my Correspondent application.
